Look out for these American Indian Activities!

by Bailey Quinn, AIA CVC

Hi my name is Bailey Quinn and I am your 2021 AIA chairman! If you don't know, AIA stands for American Indian Activities. I look forward to serving all of you this Conclave that has been two years in the making. We are going to have an amazing time together and I am more than excited to share what we have in store with you. To start off, all of the AIA will be held in the old dining hall across from the trading post. In the morning at 8:10 am AIA will be holding a craft session where you can build your own regalia.

To wrap up the morning session we will be showing a video from National Order of the Arrow about Indian regalia. Moving on to our afternoon session, there has been a bit of a change of schedule. We will still meet at 7:00 for the powwow. However, the dance competition will be held during the powwow itself. That about wraps up AIA. Thank you for your support of the section and I am more than excited to see you at AIA.

What is Quest for the Golden Arrow?

by Steven Mischenski, Quest CVC

Arrowmen,

My name is Steven Mischenski and you will be meeting me shortly after lunch for Quest Games 2021. This year we will be introducing a new game called Wischixin. With this new game come a litany of new rules to follow, most rules are in place to mitigate injury risk.

The Goals in this game will be barrels. A ball will be the device of play. A single point will be added to your score for putting the ball into the barrel, however the ball must constantly be moving like volleyball (if you are keeping the ball it must be passed between your hands in a continuous manner). Failure to do such will result in minus 1 point. A circle will be set up around the barrel (8 feet in diameter), and if you step into the circle that will be minus one point for your team. Unsportsmanlike excessive physical contact will result in minus 1 point for the first offence, minus 2 for the second offence and an ejection for the third offence.

Referees can eject you at any time for severe unsportsmanlike contact. Profanity will be met with minus 2 points for the first offence and ejection for a further infraction. Arguing with judges is minus 2 points, with an additional minus 5 points for complaining about a minus 2 point penalty for arguing with judges. ANY OFFICIAL'S DECISION IS FINAL. Standing within 10 feet of a judge while they're holding the ball is a loss of one point.

Clear boundaries will be established and the ball and players interacting with the ball must remain in those boundaries. In the event of the ball clearly goes out of bounds off a player from team 1 then a player from team

2 will throw the ball back into play from where it left play. If there is confusion regarding who the ball went off of a judge will throw the ball back into play. (The 10 foot rule applies). If the ball falls dead onto the field a referee will throw the ball back into play. Judges will throw the ball back into play at center field when a goal is scored. There are 3 judges on the field, one for each goal and one in the center field. The game can be played in uneven teams if there are <7 players per team. Games will be played in 4 minutes full games with running clocks. If there is a tie at the end of the 4 minute game the team that scores the final point of the game loses. In the final game of the tournament if there is a tie two 2-minute overtime games will be held. If there is a tie at the end of both overtimes the team that scored the final point will lose the game.

A demonstration will be done prior to the game and a random drawing of seeds for lodges will be done with the 8 and 9 seed playing the first game.

We will also be featuring a remix of the sponge relay where established end zones will be marked and all water scored will be carried by a player, Milk Crate endurance through the entirety of quest, (where bribing your opponents is not only allowed but encouraged), a speed tower of cards, baby bottle chug, cup pyramid, penny hose, and quest favorites Tug of War and frozen T-Shirt. Rules are included in this issue of the Elogamgussit.

Overall Scoring will follow the point structure outlined in the quest rules with points being assigned for first, second, third, and participant.

I look forward to seeing all 9 lodges represented at Quest after lunch and wish everyone good luck! I hope this head to head competition will be a welcomed change to the traditional quest format!

Yours in Brotherhood,

Steven Mischenski

Other Quest Games include:

Interview with Zach Mistrot!

Southern Region, Section 2 Chief

Howdy, everyone, my name is Zack Mistrot, and I have the pleasure of serving as the SR-2 Section Chief. The Section comprises nine lodges spanning North Texas and portions of Louisiana, Arkansas, and Oklahoma. Currently, I will be a freshman at the University of Texas at Austin to study psychology. I participate in UT's powerlifting team, cycling team, the Austin Meal Movement, and various other student organizations outside the classroom. In my free time, I enjoy cooking, trying new recipes and lifting. French toast is my favorite breakfast food, my favorite color is blue, and Frank's is my favorite hot sauce.

Zach is a special guest here at the SR-6 Conclave! If you see him around, be sure to say Hi, and give him a warm SR-6 Welcome.

What is your Most Important Accomplishment?

I'm proud of accomplishing being the Senior Crew Leader for NAYLE and the Senior Patrol Leader for NYLT. I truly believe in leaving a legacy on people and improving the quality of people's lives; through those national trainings, I've had the amazing opportunity to inspire people to be the best versions of themselves. This year, a girl came up to me at the end of NAYLE with a letter written to the staff. She explained that before she attended NAYLE, she felt lost, isolated, and melancholic. Afterwards, however, she said she had fun, made friends, and discovered who she was. I read the letter to my staff and almost began tearing up at how much impact we had made on that girl.

What is your favorite part of the Order of the Arrow?

I absolutely love meeting people in the Order of the Arrow. I enjoy going to Lodge events, Section Conclaves, and National events, working with other people across the nation and learning how other people and their culture function. In meeting these new people, I like to build the bonds of brotherhood with other people, and I enjoy how everyone in the OA is so inviting. I feel like I belong to this community of dedicated individuals.

Who is Someone you Admire?

Someone I admire is certainly Greg Doucette: IFBB Pro Bodybuilder and record-holding powerlifter. I found Greg's YouTube channel in September of 2020, and since then, he has vastly changed the way I view nutrition, training, and even my lifestyle in general. He preaches about making dieting and training simple, and he advocates for always trying to be better than last time in everything you do, from lifting to work to life as a whole. Greg has served as an inspiration for me to get out there, try new things, be my best self, and continually accomplish realistic goals.

Do you have an idea for Next Conclave's Theme?

Ideas for the next Conclave

bit.ly/sr6vote22

Every year, the Council of Chiefs meets to talk about the upcoming conclave. One of the biggest aspects of that is the theme. This year's theme for conclave was the "Ties of Brotherhood". Examples may be: Make your Moment, Outer Space, Family Feud, Anything! If you have an idea, let us know:

Arrowman Spotlight

Since the last issue of the Elogamgussit (early July) there have been no submissions for the Arrowman Spotlight.

The Arrowman Spotlight isn't a conclave award, and doesn't receive a trophy, but is meant to showcase high quality Arrowmen from across the section. The thought process here is to be able to highlight those arrowmen that otherwise wouldn't receive this level of recognition.

Examples could include a lodge chairmen that completely redesigned their chapter or lodge website cheerfully; or a CVC that went above and beyond in service and devotion to others. This gives many people the opportunity to be "spotlighted" on the section level, that wouldn't receive that recognition otherwise.
