Langley Brents

Hello Section E3! My name is Langley Brents, and for the past two years, I have had the pleasure of serving as the Sequoyah Lodge Chief. I am a senior at Dobyns-Bennett High School and plan to enroll at East Tennessee State University. Outside of Scouting, I am a volunteer wildland firefighter, I play bluegrass guitar, and I love working on old cars. I have served in numerous roles in my lodge, including chapter chief, lodge vice chief, and several event chair positions. These roles have helped me develop and understand all of the functions that a thriving lodge needs in order to have a successful and fun program for youth and adults in any council. Through the section, I have served as the Trading Post CVC, Newsletter Chair, and, currently, the Campfire CVC.

These roles have helped me to develop a great understanding of how the Council of Chiefs operates, how the different teams play their part to help develop an amazing event, and how to work with a stronger level team. As your section chief, I plan to increase communication between the officer team and lodges by maintaining strong contact with lodges and providing assistance year round. I plan to work directly with my team to be hands-on to assist all the lodges in our section to overcome any challenges they might need to help boost the lodge program, and finally, serve as an excellent representation of our outstanding section. I am extremely honored for the opportunity to run for section office. If you see me at any point during Conclave, please come up and say hello and ask me more about what I plan to do in order to serve all our Arrowmen best. See you soon!

Hannah Neal

Hey Section E3! What an incredible year it has been for our nine outstanding lodges. As we come together for Conclave, I encourage you to take a moment to meet someone new. Connection is at the heart of servant leadership, and the relationships we build here strengthen the spirit of our section. Building connections has aided me in more than just Scouting, but in my academic and professional career. I study Concrete Industry Management at Middle Tennessee State University; come find me to learn more about my internship with a multi-million dollar general contractor this summer! I also serve as the Panhellenic Vice President of Judicial Affairs and Accountability for Fraternity and Sorority Life, where I work to support a strong, values-driven community on campus.

Having the honor to serve as your vice chief for the past two years has been one of the greatest honors of my Scouting journey. It has taught me the true meaning of cheerful service and the importance of lifting others up. As your section chief, I will dedicate myself to being the voice of the section, celebrating your lodge's victories and helping revise the things that didn't go quite right. We are all here to learn, no matter your age or experience level.

Enjoy your time this weekend! Thank you for the opportunity to serve, and I hope to continue that service in an even greater way.

Will Pentecost

I am so excited for Conclave at Camp Currier this year, but I am just as excited to be running for a section officer position. I am an Eagle Scout and Vigil Honor member of Ahoalan-Nachpikin lodge where I currently serve as vice chief of administration. I am NLS trained and half way done with my Woodbadge tickets. I have served at Kia Kima Scout Reservation for 4 years serving as an area director for 2 of them. I am serving with Operation Arrow at National Jamboree this year and plan to staff NOAC next year. I promise to serve my best to my fellow Arrowmen within and out of our section to the best of my capacity and will help to make Section E3 a better place for all those within it.

Caroline Segebarth

Hi Section E3! My name is Caroline Segebarth, and I proudly hail from Kawida Lodge, where I serve as lodge secretary. Between my experience earning my Eagle Scout this past fall, serving as our council's NYLT Senior Patrol Leader, as well as this year working as our Section Website Chair, I have developed a deep appreciation for the Order of the Arrow and the people, events and leadership skills and qualities necessary to help our section thrive. As your section secretary, I aim to bring together our lodges through enhanced communication, using some more creative spotlights on our website, newsletter, and social media platforms to build a stronger sense of community across our very large section. I am committed towards mentoring new members in communications roles, and working alongside our new section chief and vice chief team to streamline logistics and boost morale.

Scouting helped me find my voice, and I am honored to run for an office where I can give back to the members who make our section great, and the people great. Outside of Scouting, I run cross country, track, and compete in speech and debate. I also love traveling and trying and cooking new foods! If you see me this weekend please come say hi! I would love to hear your ideas for the section, you can hear mine, or we can just chat! I've been told I can talk to a tree and enjoy it too. Happy Conclave!

Jason "Cookie" Shaw

Howdy Section E3! My name is Jason Shaw, but you may know me as Cookie, and I hope you all are having a great conclave so far! For those I haven't met yet, I am an Eagle Scout, Vigil Honor member, former Chapter Chief, and 2025 Pellissippi Lodge Chief. In addition to all that, I serve as the Quest CVC for this Conclave, and now I am running to be your next Section Chief. I really love this section and want to make a difference in where it goes next. You may be thinking, "ok, that seems a little standard," but what isn't is my plan if elected. I will work with your Lodge Chiefs to increase lodge representation and be your voice at the regional and national levels. I will strengthen lodge support by creating a toolbox to help lodges face challenges, set goals, and achieve them. Lastly, I will use my experience with the new induction process to create resources that help guide lodges through this transition and ensure no lodge feels lost. Well E3, that's me! If you see me, feel free to come and have a chat. I'd love to meet you, and I'd be honored if you'd support me to be your next section chief!

Brady Tackett

What's up E3! My name is Brady Tackett. I'm a Vigil Honor member and Eagle Scout from Nguttitehen Lodge #205. I've served on the section level as a two term Lodge Chief, Section CVC, and OAHA Coordinator. I'm running for section office to bring the section closer to its members. I firmly believe that we are the best section in the OA, and the average member shouldn't only see E3 at Conclave. If elected, I will make the section a resource for lodge leaders to gain feedback and tailored support so that every lodge can grow to their fullest potential. Also, I will work to make personal connections with lodge members, so they know their section officers, and they have a clear path to joining a section committee. Beyond all the politics, my number one goal is to bring E3 to you. It would be my honor to serve as a section officer this year, not for the title but for the chance to give cheerful service to all our members.
